SUMMER FRIDAYS AT TRIBECA

A summer series aimed at connecting our audience with fun Friday options every week. Things like free movie screenings, fun How-To's, and other various curated content can fall under the "Summer Friday Series" umbrella. Also a great way to bring more diverse traffic to the website since everyone likes Fridays.

Eye-catching series art can be shared on both Tribecafilm.com and our Tumblr page. The series art revolves around fun and summery film references combined with a colorful iteration of our brand style. Additional content created for the series will follow a similar style.
